The most efficient path to compliance.

Content Companion is a content library accessible directly within Microsoft Word that allows for easy storage, retrieval, and distribution of approved information, helping the entire organization produce documents with consistent language.

Why Content Companion?

The ever-changing regulatory landscape makes it challenging to create an environment that fosters compliance and efficiency. Professionals must create and share documentation but are faced with time-consuming and costly workflows as they pull information from multiple sources and locations.

Speed & Convenience

Access preferred content directly within the document, saving time and driving adoption.

Consistent Quality

Safeguard the reputation of your company by encouraging use of the best, approved content.

Safer Reuse

Automatically anonymize content form prior documents, save to clause library, and safely reuse it anytime.

"I needed a better way to share and manage my standardized regulatory document content. Content Companion does everything I need it to—stores my content in an approved location and makes it easy to access through its Microsoft Word tools."
